저자의 말

안녕하세요. Zootalk은 동물을 캐릭터화 한 스토리로 아이들에게 영어 학습을 더욱 친숙하게 하기 위해 제작되었습니다.

아이들에게 스토리텔링으로 자연스러운 학습환경을 만들어 주고, 그 안에서 영어의 노출을 진행함으로, 아이들은 더 편안하게 학습을 할 수 있습니다.

정해진 7권의 코스북 외에도, Extended Reading이나 World tour등 연관된 교재들도 있어서, 아이들의 학습에 더욱 더 도움이 되리라 생각합니다.

아이들이 이 교재들로 더 재미있게 공부하기를 바랍니다.

학습방법

교재는 총 7단계로 구분되어 있으며, 각 레벨마다 보충 교재들이 준비되어 있습니다.

1레벨 Kiki (파닉스를 갓 마친 혹은 파닉스 후반부의 학생)
2레벨 Bob (파닉스를 마치고, 다양한 어휘학습을 목표)
3레벨 Mimi (다양한 표현과 어휘학습을 목표
4레벨 Momo (문법이 포함된 교재로, 다양한 표현도 습득)
5레벨 Gum (스토리마다 관련된 질문으로 사고력 향상)
6레벨 Leo (과거형을 사용하며, 사고력 향상을 목표)
7레벨 Kiri (과거형을 사용하며, 깊은 사고력 관련 포함)

Unit 1: The Forest Trail

Gum arrives at the forest early.
He checks his backpack before walking.
Although the trail looks easy, it seems quite long.
Tall trees grow on both sides.
Gum walks carefully over the rocky ground.
He feels excited about the adventure.

Questions

1. Why does Gum check his backpack?
2. What grows on both sides?
3. How does Gum feel?

Gum hears a soft sound near the bushes.
When he looks closer, a small deer appears.
Although Gum wants to move closer, he stays still.
The deer watches him quietly.
After a moment, it turns around.
Then it disappears between the trees.

Questions

1. What does Gum hear?

2. What animal appears?

3. Why does Gum stay still?

Gum continues along the forest trail.
The path becomes steeper as he walks.
Although his legs feel tired, he keeps going.
When he reaches the top, he stops.
A beautiful valley stretches far below.
Gum smiles because the view is amazing.

Questions

1. What happens to the path?

2. Why does Gum keep going?

3. What does Gum see below?

Gum rests beneath a large tree.

He eats his snack while enjoying the quiet forest.

Although he feels tired, he is proud of himself.

Before leaving, he looks around once more.

The trail seems different from above.

Gum promises to return another day.

Questions

1. Where does Gum rest?
2. Why is Gum proud?
3. What does Gum promise?

Unit 2:
The Flower Field

Gum walks toward a large flower field.
He carries a small basket for his adventure.
Although the field looks far away, he keeps walking.
Soon, colorful flowers appear ahead.
Gum stops because the view is beautiful.
He smiles as the gentle wind blows.

Questions

1. Where does Gum walk?
2. What does Gum carry?
3. Why does Gum stop?

Gum carefully walks between the flowers.
He notices many different shapes and colors.
While he looks around, a tiny insect lands nearby.
Gum watches it without making a sound.
Although he wants to touch it, he keeps his hands still.
Soon, the insect flies away.

Questions

1. What does Gum notice?
2. Where does the tiny insect land?
3. Why does Gum keep his hands still?

Gum sits beside the flowers for a while.
He opens his basket and takes out some water.
Although the sun feels warm, the wind keeps him cool.
Gum listens to the soft sounds around him.
Suddenly, a bee buzzes past his ear.
He stays calm and watches it disappear.

Questions

1. What does Gum take from his basket?
2. Why does Gum feel cool?
3. What flies past his ear?

Before Gum leaves, he looks across the field again.

The flowers move gently as the wind passes.

Although he feels ready to go home, he wants to stay longer.

He takes one last deep breath.

Then Gum picks up his basket.

He leaves happily, remembering the beautiful field.

Questions

1. What does Gum do before leaving?
2. Why does he want to stay longer?
3. How does Gum leave?

Unit 3: The Bird-Watching Trip

Gum wakes up early for a bird-watching trip.
He carries binoculars inside his small backpack.
Although the morning feels cool, the sky is clear.
Gum walks quietly along the forest path.
He listens carefully for bird sounds.
Soon, he hears a gentle whistle.

Questions

1. What does Gum carry?
2. How does the morning feel?
3. What does Gum hear?

Gum stops beneath a tall tree.

When he looks up, a bright parrot sits on a branch.

The parrot moves its head from side to side.

Although Gum feels excited, he stays very quiet.

He raises his binoculars slowly.

Then he watches the parrot carefully.

Questions

1. Where does Gum stop?

2. What sits on the branch?

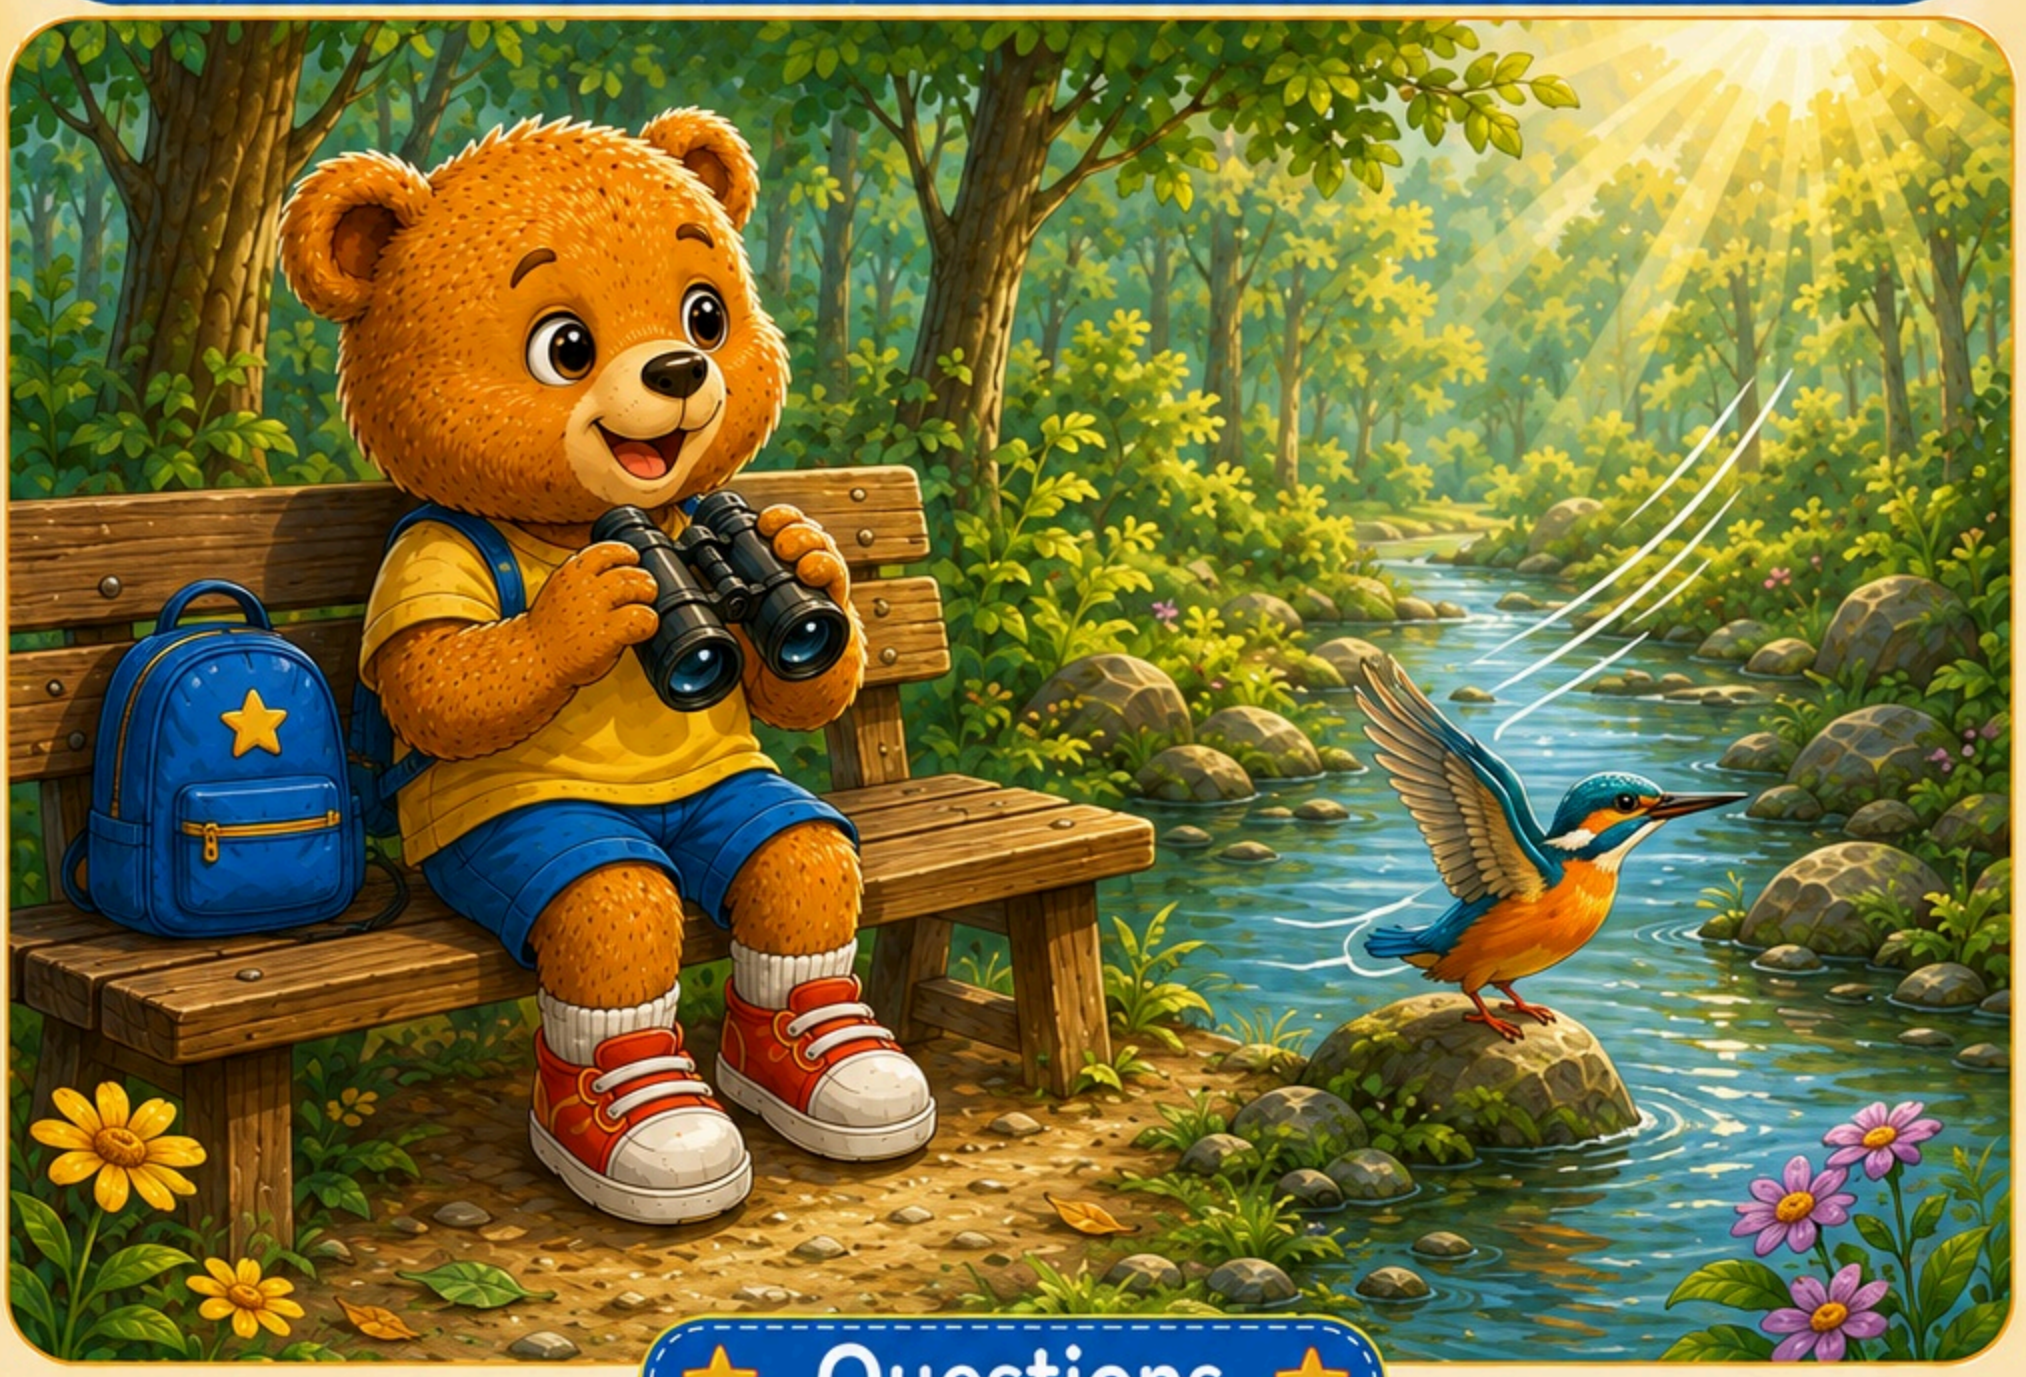
3. Why does Gum stay quiet?

Gum follows the forest path a little farther.
Suddenly, a small owl flies silently above him.
Because it moves so quickly, Gum almost misses it.
He points his binoculars toward the sky.
Although the owl disappears behind the trees,
Gum keeps looking.
He feels proud of what he sees.

Questions

1. What flies above Gum?
2. Why does Gum almost miss it?
3. How does Gum feel?

Before going home, Gum sits on a wooden bench.
He looks through his binoculars one last time.
A colorful kingfisher lands beside a quiet stream.
Although Gum feels tired, he watches happily.
The bird quickly flies away.
Gum smiles because the trip is a success.



Questions

1. Where does Gum sit?

2. What bird does Gum see?

3. Why does Gum smile?

Unit 4: The Mountain Path

Gum stands at the beginning of a mountain path.
He tightens the straps on his backpack.
Although the path looks steep, he feels ready.
Large rocks cover parts of the ground.
Gum steps carefully between them.
Soon, he reaches the first hill.

Questions

1. Where does Gum stand?
2. What does Gum tighten?
3. Why does Gum step carefully?

Gum climbs slowly along the rocky path.
While he walks, dark clouds gather above the mountains.
Although the weather begins to change,
Gum continues carefully.
A cool breeze blows against his face.
He holds his hat tightly.
Then the clouds move away.

Questions

1. What does Gum climb?
2. What gathers above the mountains?
3. Why does Gum hold his hat?

Gum reaches a narrow part of the trail.

He notices a wooden bridge across a small gap.

Because the bridge looks old, he walks across it slowly.

He keeps his eyes on the path.

Although he feels nervous, he does not stop.

Finally, he reaches the other side.

Questions

1. What does Gum notice?
2. Why does he walk slowly?
3. How does Gum feel?

At last, Gum reaches the mountain top.
He looks across the valleys below him.
Although his legs feel tired, he feels extremely proud.
The cool wind blows around him.
Gum takes a deep breath before resting.
He knows the difficult climb is worth it.

Questions

1. Where does Gum finally reach?
2. How does Gum feel?
3. Why is the climb worth it?

Unit 5: The River Ride

Gum arrives beside a wide, sparkling river.

A small boat waits near the wooden dock.

Although the water looks calm, Gum feels excited.

He carefully steps into the boat.

Then he checks his life jacket.

Soon, the boat begins to move.

Questions

1. Where does Gum arrive?

2. What does Gum check?

3. When does the boat begin to move?

The boat slowly travels down the river.

Gum watches the trees moving past him.

While the water remains calm, the boat gently rocks.

Suddenly, a splash rises beside him.

Gum quickly looks over the side.

A fish jumps out of the water.

Questions

1. What does Gum watch?

2. How does the boat move?

3. What jumps out of the water?

Gum continues enjoying the peaceful river ride.

Although the boat moves slowly, the scenery keeps changing.

Tall trees give way to rocky cliffs.

Gum notices a waterfall in the distance.

Because he does not want to miss it, he watches carefully.

Soon, the boat gets closer.

Questions

1. What does Gum notice?

2. What replaces the tall trees?

3. Why does Gum watch carefully?

Finally, the boat reaches a quiet part of the river.

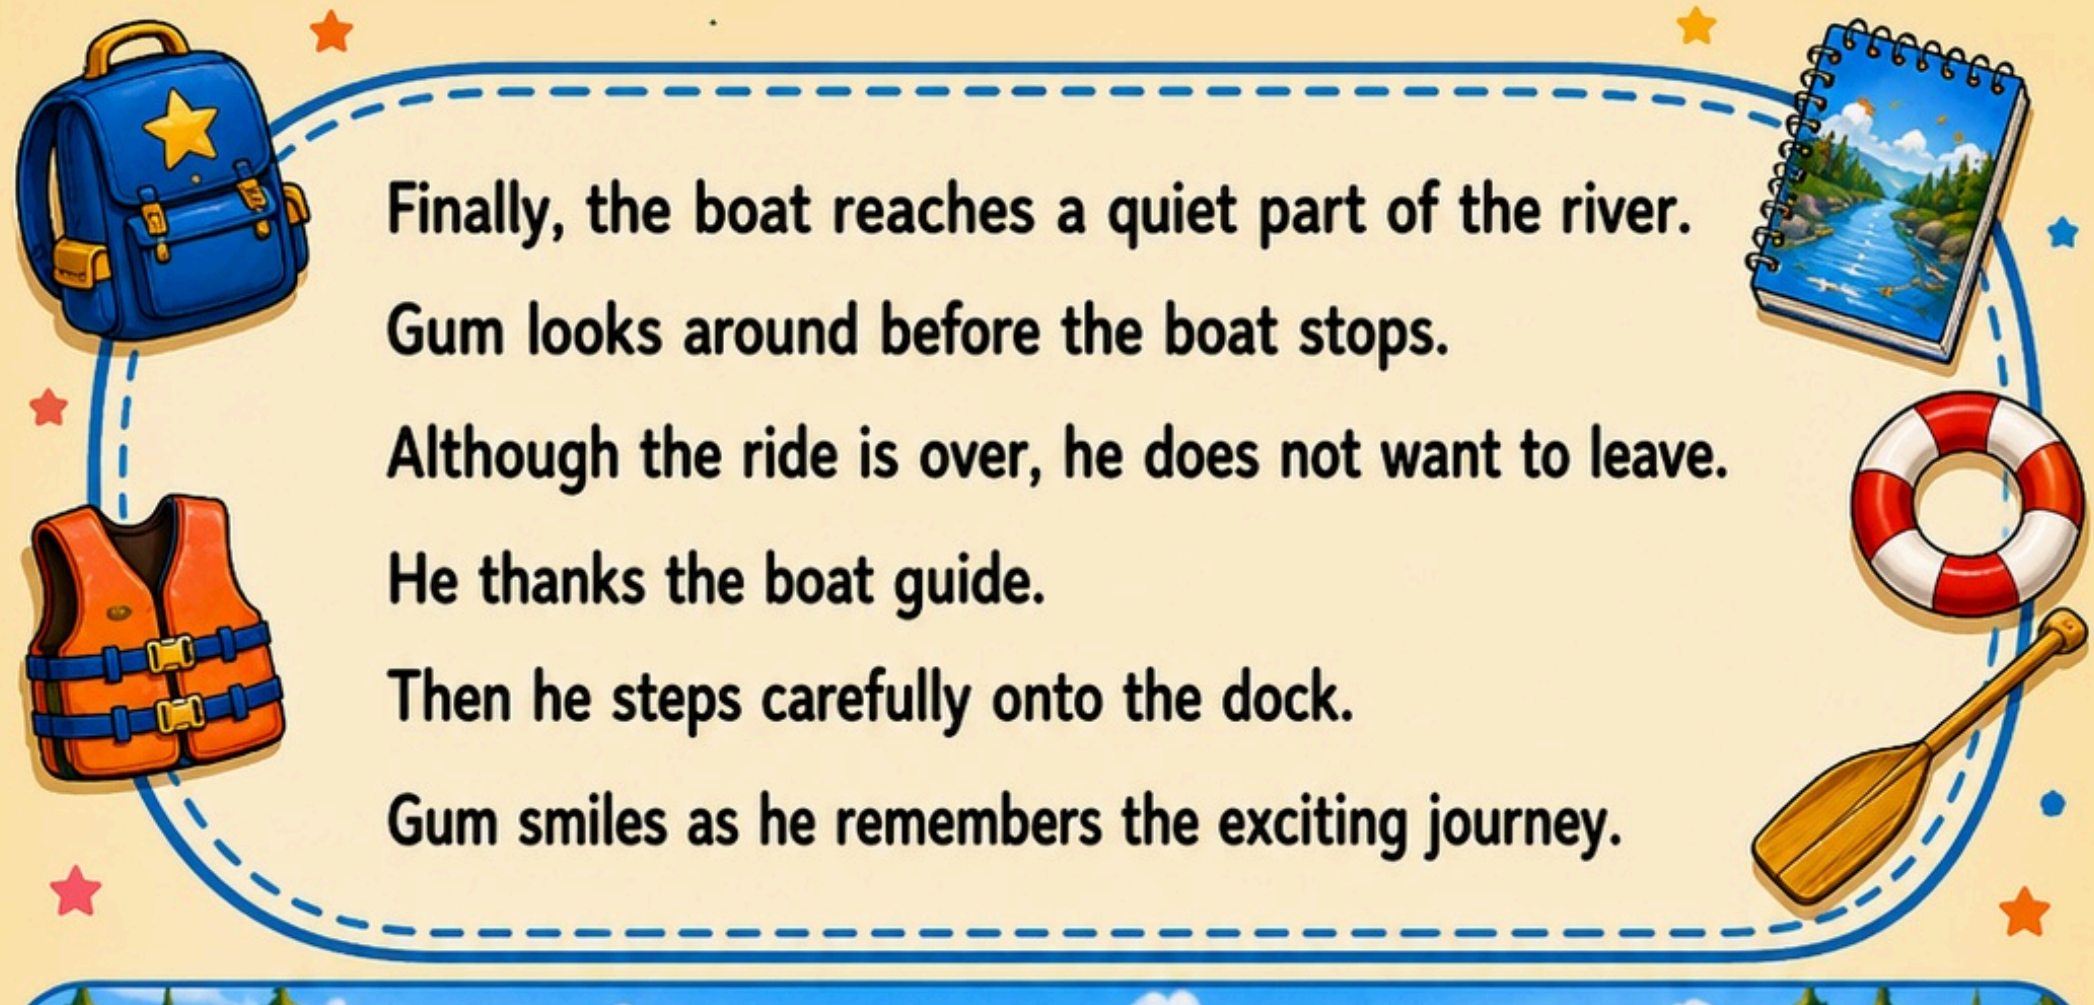
Gum looks around before the boat stops.

Although the ride is over, he does not want to leave.

He thanks the boat guide.

Then he steps carefully onto the dock.

Gum smiles as he remembers the exciting journey.



Questions

1. Where does the boat stop?

2. Why does Gum not want to leave?

3. What does Gum remember?

Unit 6: The Long Road Trip

Gum wakes up early for a long road trip.

He packs his clothes and snacks carefully.

Although the journey seems exciting,

it will take many hours.

Gum checks his backpack one more time.

Then he climbs into the car.

Soon, they leave the town behind.

Questions

1. What does Gum pack?

2. How long will the journey take?

3. Where does Gum sit?

The car travels along a wide highway.
Gum watches the scenery change outside the window.
While they drive through green fields,
he sees tall windmills.
Although he feels comfortable, he becomes curious.
He asks to stop for a short break.
Soon, the car leaves the fields behind.

Questions

1. What does Gum watch?
2. What does he see in the fields?
3. Why does Gum ask to stop?

After several hours, the road becomes much quieter.

Gum stretches his legs during another short break.

Because the journey is long, he feels slightly tired.

He drinks some water and eats a snack.

Although he wants to rest longer, he climbs back inside.

The car continues toward the mountains.

Questions

1. Why does Gum feel tired?

2. What does he eat?

3. Where does the car continue?

At last, Gum sees the mountains ahead.

The road winds between tall hills and rocky cliffs.

Although the trip has been tiring, Gum feels excited again.

He watches the beautiful scenery carefully.

Soon, the car reaches its destination.

Gum smiles because the long journey is finally over.

Questions

1. What does Gum see ahead?

2. How does the road move?

3. Why does Gum smile?

Unit 7:
My First Airplane Ride

Gum arrives at the airport with his small suitcase.

He looks around because everything seems new.

Although he feels excited, he also feels nervous.

He watches the airplanes through the large windows.

Soon, his flight appears on the screen.

Gum holds his suitcase tightly.

Questions

1. Where does Gum arrive?

2. Why does Gum feel nervous?

3. What does he hold tightly?

Gum walks toward the airplane with his suitcase.

While he waits in line, he looks up at the huge plane.

Although it seems enormous, he feels ready to board.

He finds his seat beside the window.

Then he fastens his seat belt carefully.

The airplane begins moving soon afterward.

Questions

1. What does Gum carry?
2. Where does Gum sit?
3. What does Gum fasten?

The airplane moves faster along the runway.
Gum holds his seat tightly as the plane lifts into the sky.
Although he feels nervous at first,
he soon relaxes.
Clouds appear below his window.
Gum watches them with great excitement.
Everything looks tiny from above.

Questions

1. What does the airplane do?
2. What appears below the window?
3. How does Gum feel?

Gum enjoys the rest of the flight.

He looks down at rivers, roads, and tiny buildings.

Because the view is so beautiful, he keeps watching.

After a while, the airplane begins to land.

Gum smiles as the wheels touch the ground.

His first airplane ride is unforgettable.

Questions

1. What does Gum see below?

2. Why does he keep watching?

3. How does Gum feel about his first airplane ride?

Unit 8: The Train Adventure

Gum arrives at the busy train station.

He carries a small suitcase and checks his ticket.

Although the station is crowded, he stays calm.

A long train waits beside the platform.

Gum watches as passengers climb aboard.

Soon, he finds the correct carriage.

Questions

1. Where does Gum arrive?

2. What does he check?

3. What waits beside the platform?

Gum finds a comfortable seat beside the window.

While the train waits, he watches people moving around.

Although he feels impatient,

he knows the journey will begin soon.

Suddenly, the doors close.

The train slowly pulls away.

Gum waves as the station disappears.

Questions

1. Where does Gum sit?

2. Why does Gum feel impatient?

3. What happens to the station?

The train travels through the countryside.
Gum watches green fields pass by the window.
When the train enters a dark tunnel, everything suddenly becomes block.
Gum looks surprised for a moment.
Although the tunnel seems long,
bright light soon appears ahead.
The train comes out into the sunshine.

Questions

1. Where does the train travel?

2. What happens inside the tunnel?

3. What appears ahead?

Later, the train crosses a large bridge.

Gum looks down and sees a wide river below.

Although the bridge is high, he feels completely safe.

He takes a few pictures through the window.

Soon, the train reaches the final station.

Gum smiles because the adventure is wonderful.

Questions

1. What does the train cross?

2. What does Gum see below?

3. Why does Gum smile?

Unit 9: The Cruise Surprise

Gum arrives at the harbor with his suitcase.

A huge cruise ship waits beside the dock.

Although the ship looks enormous, Gum feels excited.

He checks his ticket before climbing aboard.

The ship has many bright windows.

Gum wonders what surprises are waiting inside.

Questions

1. Where does Gum arrive?

2. What waits beside the dock?

3. What does Gum check?

Gum explores the ship after finding his room.
While he walks along the deck, he discovers a large swimming pool.
Although he did not expect it, he feels delighted.
He looks around at the colorful decorations.
Suddenly, music begins playing nearby.
Gum follows the sound curiously.

Questions

1. What does Gum discover?

2. Why is Gum delighted?

3. What begins playing?

Gum follows the music around the corner.
To his surprise, a large party is taking place.
People are dancing while colorful lights flash around them.
Although Gum feels shy at first,
he starts moving to the music.
Soon, he is laughing and dancing too.
The party becomes even more exciting.

Questions

1. What does Gum discover?
2. How does Gum feel at first?
3. What does Gum do?

Later, Gum walks outside to watch the sunset.
The sky changes from bright blue to warm orange.
Although the party was exciting, this quiet moment feels special.
Gum watches the waves moving beside the ship.
He smiles as the sun disappears.
The cruise surprise is better than he imagined.

Questions

1. What does Gum watch?

2. How does the sky change?

3. Why does Gum smile?

Unit 10: A Visit to the Lighthouse

Gum arrives near a tall lighthouse by the sea.
He looks up at the bright white tower.
Although the lighthouse seems very tall,
Gum wants to explore it.
He follows a narrow path toward the entrance.
The ocean stretches far behind him.
Gum feels curious about what is inside.

Questions

1. Where does Gum arrive?

2. What does Gum look at?

3. Why does Gum want to explore the lighthouse?

Gum enters the lighthouse and sees a spiral staircase.

The stairs seem to continue forever.

Although Gum feels slightly tired, he keeps climbing.

He holds the railing as he moves upward.

When he reaches a small window, he stops.

The ocean looks beautiful from there.

Questions

1. What does Gum see inside?

2. Why does he hold the railing?

3. What does he see through the window?

Gum finally reaches the top of the lighthouse.

A huge light stands above him.

Because the light is so powerful, Gum looks at it carefully.

He walks toward the large windows.

Although the wind blows strongly outside,

he feels safe inside.

Gum watches the waves below.

Questions

1. What does Gum find at the top?

2. Why does he look at the light carefully?

3. What does Gum watch below?

Before leaving, Gum takes one last look outside.

The lighthouse shines brightly above the rocky coast.
