Unit 1: I Can't Roar Yet!

Leo wants to make a big roar.
He takes a deep breath.
He opens his mouth wide.
“Roar!” Leo shouts.
But only a tiny sound comes out.

Leo looks surprised.

What does Leo want to make?

What does Leo take?

Is his roar big or tiny?

Leo tries again.
He stands up tall.
He lifts his head.
“ROAR!” he shouts loudly.
This time, his voice is stronger.
Leo smiles proudly.

What does Leo do again?

How does Leo stand?

Is his voice stronger?

Leo takes another deep breath.
He pushes his chest forward.
Then he makes his biggest roar.
“ROAAAAAR!”
The sound echoes across the field.

Leo feels very proud.

1 What does Leo take?

2 Where does the sound echo?

3 How does Leo feel?

Leo wants an even bigger roar.
He knows he needs more practice.
He takes one more deep breath.
“ROAR!” he shouts.
His voice sounds much stronger now.

Leo knows he can improve.

What does Leo want?

What does he need?

How does his voice sound now?

Unit 2: My Shadow Follows Me

Leo walked across the sunny field.
He looked down at the ground.
A dark shape followed him.
Leo stopped and stared at it.
When he moved, it moved too.
Leo felt very curious.

Where did Leo walk?

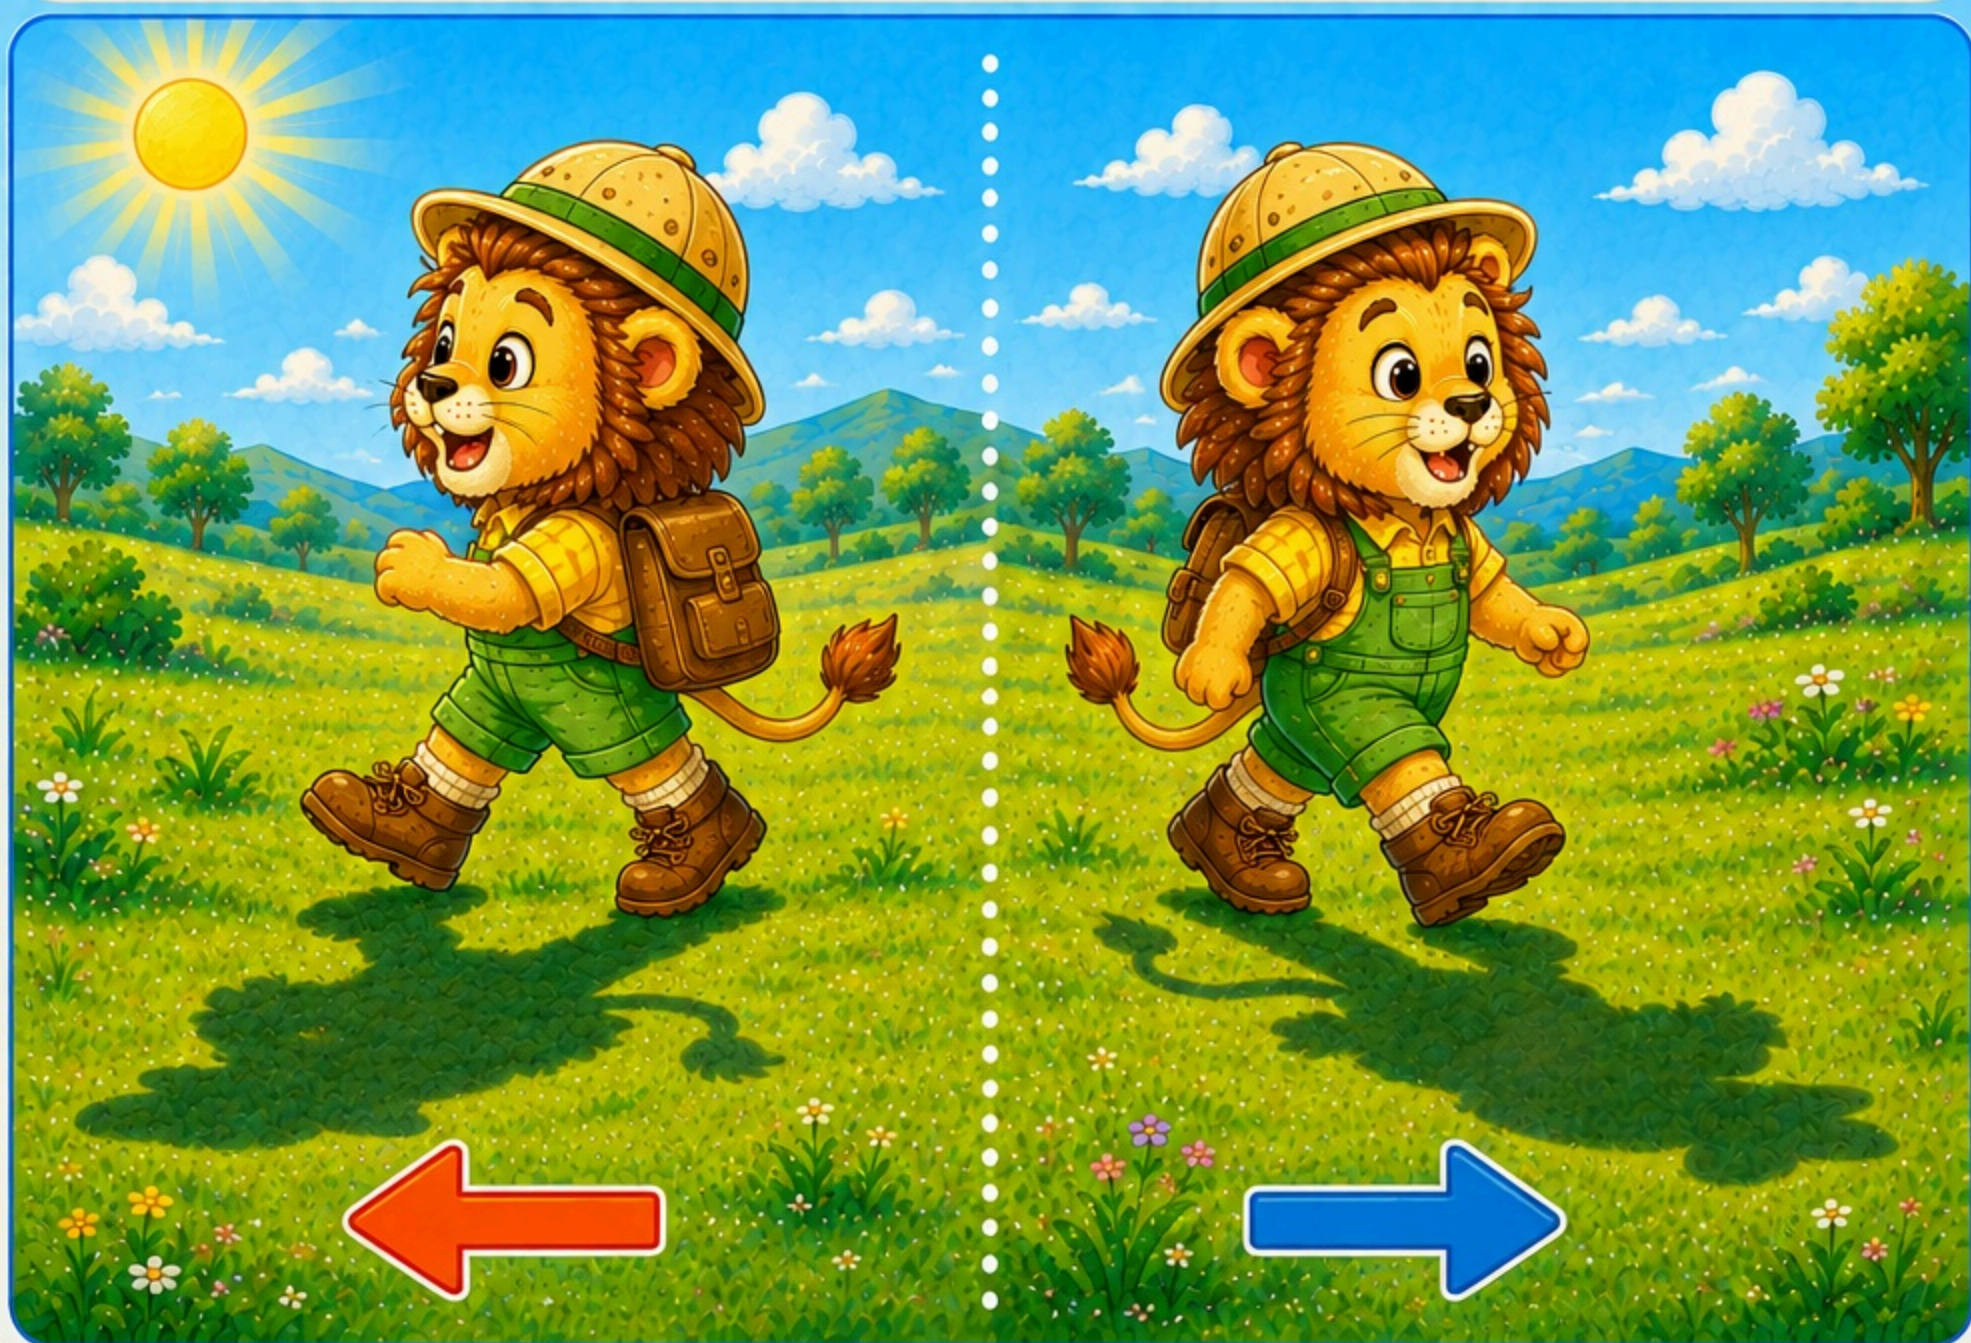

What followed Leo?

How did Leo feel?

His shadow moved to the left.
Then Leo walked to the right.
His shadow moved to the right.
Leo watched it carefully.
He began to understand.

Which way did Leo walk first?

Which way did his shadow move?

What did Leo begin to understand?

Leo jumped high into the air.
His shadow jumped too.
Leo spun around in a circle.
His shadow spun around with him.
Leo laughed at the funny sight.
He jumped again.

What did Leo do first?

What did his shadow copy?

Why did Leo laugh?

Leo sat under a big tree.
His shadow sat beside him.
Leo looked at it and smiled.
“You really follow me everywhere!”
He stood up again.
