Jelly

Can You See Me?

LITTLE READERS

Mia and Max go to the garden.

The sun shines on the grass.

It is a lovely day to play.

"Let us play hide and seek!"
Mia says to her puppy.
Max looks up at her.

Max wags his little tail.
He likes to play with Mia.
"You can find me," she says.

"Wait here, Max," says Mia.
"Close your eyes and count."
Max sits down on the grass.

Mia runs behind a bush.
Its leaves are big and green.
She hides very quietly.

Max waits for a moment.

He keeps his eyes closed.

Mia is ready now.

"Ready!" Mia calls.

Max opens his eyes.

He starts to look for her.

Mia peeks from the bush.

She can see her puppy.

But can Max see her?

Max looks behind a tree.
He sees a little flower.
But Mia is not there.

Max looks by the bench.

He looks underneath it, too.

Mia is not by the bench.

Max sniffs near the flowers.
They smell sweet and fresh.
But where is Mia?

Mia watches Max look.
She stays behind the bush.
She tries not to laugh.

"Can you see me?" calls Mia.
Her voice comes from the bush.
Max stops and listens.

Max tilts his head.

He hears his friend.

Where is her voice coming from?

Mia moves one red shoe.
It peeks out from the leaves.
She does not see it.

Max sees the little red shoe.
He knows it belongs to Mia.
His tail begins to wag.

Max runs toward the bush.

He sniffs the green leaves.

Mia hears him coming.

Mia peeks out at Max.

"Did you find me?" she asks.

Max gives a happy bark.

Max finds Mia behind the bush.
She gives him a gentle pat.
"You found me!" she says.

Mia and Max are happy.
They laugh and play together.
"Let us play again!" says Mia.

"Now you hide, Max," says Mia.

"I will look for you."

Max runs across the grass.

Max runs behind a tree.

He sits very still.

His little tail moves.

Mia closes her eyes.
She covers them with her hands.
"I am counting," she says.

"One, two, three," says Mia.
"Ready or not, here I come!"
She opens her eyes.

Mia looks behind the bench.

She sees a little stone.

But Max is not there.

Mia looks near the flowers.

A bee flies by her nose.

Max is not by the flowers.

Then Mia sees a wagging tail.
It is behind the big tree.
"Could that be Max?" she asks.

Max peeks from the tree.
He sees Mia coming.
His tail wags even faster.

Mia follows the wagging tail.
She walks around the tree.
"I can see you!" she says.

Max looks up at Mia.

He gives a happy bark.

Mia smiles at her friend.

"I found you, Max!" says Mia.

She gives him a gentle hug.

Max wags his tail.

The friends laugh and play.
They both found each other.
What a fun game!

Mia wants to hide again.
She runs behind a big tree.
Max waits on the grass.

Max looks around the garden.
He looks from side to side.
Where did Mia go?

Mia waves from the tree.
"Can you see me?" she calls.
Max sees her hand.

Max runs to the tree.
He finds Mia once more.
"Good job!" she says.

At last the friends rest.
They sit on the soft grass.
They have played a lot.

Mia pets Max gently.
"You are good at this game," she tells him.

The sun shines on the garden.

Flowers move in the breeze.

Mia and Max sit together.

Mia waves to her friend.
"Let us play again soon!"
Max gives a happy bark.

Where do Mia and Max play?

What game do they choose?

Tell a friend.

Where does Mia hide?

Who looks for her?

Look at the picture.

What does Max see
outside the bush?
How does he find Mia?

Who hides next?

What does Mia do

while Max hides?

What does Mia see behind the tree?
Whose tail is it?

How does Mia find Max?
How do the friends feel?
Tell a friend.

Where does Mia hide again?

What does Max see?

Look at the tree.

What games do you like?
Who do you play with?
Share your idea.

The End

