Jelly

A Bed for Ted

LITTLE READERS

Mia holds her teddy bear.

His name is Ted.

He is her special friend.

Mia looks at her bed.
"I have a place to sleep,"
she says to Ted.

Max sits beside Mia.

He looks at the little bear.

Ted has no bed of his own.

Mia thinks for a moment.
"I can make you a bed!"
she tells Ted.

Mia looks around her room.

She looks by the shelf.

What can she use?

Mia finds a little box.

It is near her toys.

She picks it up.

Mia looks at the box.

"Is it big enough?" she asks.

She puts it on the floor.

Ted fits inside the box!

"It is just right," says Mia.

Max watches her.

Mia finds a soft cloth.
It feels nice and smooth.
"This can make the bed soft."

Mia folds the cloth carefully.
She folds it once and twice.
Now it fits in the box.

Mia puts the cloth inside.

It covers the bottom.

Ted will have a soft bed.

Max watches Mia work.
His tail goes swish, swish.
He wants to help.

Mia finds a tiny pillow.

It is soft and white.

"Ted needs a pillow," she says.

Mia puts the pillow in the box.
She sets it at one end.
Now Ted can rest his head.

Mia puts Ted on the pillow.
His head rests on top.
"How does that feel?" she asks.

Mia smiles at her bear.

The box is becoming a bed.

Max looks at it, too.

"Ted needs a blanket," says Mia.

She looks around her room.

Which one should she choose?

Mia finds a blue blanket.

It is little and soft.

"This one is perfect!"

Mia folds the blanket.
She makes it neat and small.
It will fit Ted's bed.

Max carries the blanket gently.

He brings it to Mia.

"Thank you, Max!" she says.

Mia puts the blanket on Ted.

She tucks it around him.

Only his head peeks out.

Ted looks warm and cozy.

His pillow is soft.

His blanket is snug.

Mia and Max look at the bed.

"I think Ted likes it," says Mia.

Max wags his tail.

Mia puts the bed near hers.

Ted will be close at night.

She smiles at her bear.

Mia finds paper stars.

She puts them on the box.

One star is bright yellow.

Max watches the little stars.

He sniffs the paper gently.

Mia gives him a smile.

Mia draws a little moon.

She puts it by the stars.

The box looks pretty.

The bed is ready at last.
It has stars and a moon.
Ted looks happy in it.

Mia picks up a storybook.

"I will read to you," she says.

Ted rests in his bed.

Max sits beside Mia.

He listens to the story, too.

Mia turns a page.

Mia shows Ted a picture.
It has a bright blue sky.
"Look at this!" she says.

Ted rests on his pillow.

Mia reads one more page.

The room is quiet.

"Good night, Ted," says Mia.
She gives him a little pat.
"Sleep well in your new bed."

Mia turns off the big lamp.
A gentle night-light glows.
The room feels calm.

Max curls up nearby.

He puts his head on his paws.

It is time to rest.

Ted rests in his little bed.
His blanket keeps him cozy.
The stars shine on the box.

Morning sun fills the room.

Mia opens her eyes.

A new day has begun.

Mia looks at Ted's bed.
Ted is still cozy inside.
"Good morning!" she says.

Mia gives Ted a big hug.

"Did you sleep well?" she asks.

Max wakes up, too.

Mia and Max smile together.

Ted has a bed of his own.

What a cozy little bed!

Who is Ted?

Why does Mia want to make him a bed?

What does Mia find for the bed?
Is Ted able to fit?

What makes the bed soft?

Where does Mia put it?

Look at the picture.

What does Ted use
for his head?
Who helps Mia?

What color is the blanket?

How does Max help?

Tell a friend.

How does Mia decorate
the little bed?
Name two things.

What does Mia do before Ted goes to sleep?
What happens in the morning?

What happens first, next,

and at the end?

Tell the story in order.

The End

